

PRESS RELEASE

June 5, 2014

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Senator Rusty Crow and Davy Crockett Ruritan Makes Historic Presentation- 10 am Monday June 9, 2014 at the Unicoi Tourist Information Center

Senator Rusty will be presented with a Nat Wilson painting by the Davy Crockett Ruritan District. Nat Wilson was the first Tennessee Commission of Mental Health. Our Senator, Rusty Crowe will then present this honorable gift to the current Mental Health Commissioner E. Douglas Barney. Come and be a part of this historical event!

What: Historical Event and Presentation by Senator Rusty Crowe & Davey Crockett Ruritan District

Where: Unicoi Tourist Information Center, 106 Unicoi Village Place, Unicoi, TN (Interstate 26 Exit 32)

When: MONDAY June 9, 2014 10 am

Why: To Promote civic organization, Davy Crockett Ruritan, the Unicoi Tourist Information Center and the Arts through the Honorable Senator Rusty Crowe in recognition of the State of Tennessee's Past Commissioner of Mental Health to the Current Commissioner of Mental Health.